Fitz to Miss?

Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, 81-year-old trainer of Kentucky Derby favorite Nashua, said yesterday he had train reservations for Louisville today but might not use them because he is suffering with a heavy cold.

"I don't want to go to Louisville and spend Derby Day in bed there. Actually, I'm not needed and my family wants me to cancel the trip, but if I am well I'll go. If not, I'll see the race on television," he said.

Sunny Jim has saddled three Derby winners. If he is unable to go, his son, John, will be in charge at Louisville.
