Dear Mr. Fitzsimmons:

Several years ago I wrote you of my dad's great interest in horses and at that time you sent him a beautiful letter and a wonderful picture of Nashua which arrived on his birthday.

My dad framed the picture and it is hanging in a prominent spot in his home.

Both he and I continue to follow your career and read everything we can about the horses you train.

(I went to Monmouth Saturday to see Bold Ruler - yet I guess Dad was happier than I because he got to see you on T.V. and with all the people at Monmouth I was lucky to get a glimpse of the great race.)

Now, after the above, I shall come to the point of this letter.

We know it is your birthday this Wednesday. We wish to be noted as wishing you a wonderful day, with many more with all of God's graces showering on you.

Sincerely

Two of your most ardent admirers from Jersey
