

'Sunny Jim's' Chair Reserved

HIALEAH, Fla., Feb. 10. — For many years 86-year-old trainer "Sunny Jim" Fitzsimmons has occupied a lawn chair in the Hialeah paddock where he basks in the sun during racing afternoons. However, the chair was frequently taken by others, so John L. Donovan, assistant clerk of the scales, has done something about it. He had a metal plate inscribed with "Mr. Fitz" attached to the chair, now located just outside the jockeys' quarters.
