SUNNY JIM FITZSIMMONS, beloved dean of American race horse trainers, was born 89 years ago in Brooklyn, N.Y., and by the time he was 11 did odd jobs around a stable. Later an exercise boy and jockey, he obtained a trainer's license in 1900. "Mr. Fitz" has handled the greats — Johnstown, Dark Secret, Seabiscuit, Nashua, Bold Ruler, Omaha and Gallant Fox among them. Sunny Jim, now retired, lives at 750 Morningside Dr., Miami Springs. A gracious and witty man, he has six sons and a daughter, 17 grandchildren and 37 great-grandchildren.
